On this day in 1976, NASA introduced the Enterprise to the public. This was the first space shuttle and served as a test vehicle. Regular shuttle flights began in 1981 with the shuttle Columbia. Do you think we should move forward with the idea of space tourism? Instead of going to Disney World, your family may choose to travel into space. What are your thoughts and opinions?